Speaker for July 17th, 2022

Dr Scott Peterson

- Personal experiences: What is a Celestial Being? -

In 1993 Scott had his first near-death experience, followed by three more before 2006.

During that time he has written 21 books detailing these experiences, and taught for a little over three years at the Theosophical Society, until it changed to its current form. The audio tapes and books may still be there!

During these experiences Scott received information about Celestial Beings, also known as the Sons of Light. He subsequently wrote about them and became an international bestselling author.

Scott designed some equipment on the technology he received from those experiences. He says “from my understanding I know there is but one heaven that all sentient beings from any world, in any galaxy, die and go to, the hall of records details all their existences, including technology and other advancements.”

Scott was able to bring a lot of this knowledge back with him.

Since 2006 he has concentrated his efforts on writing the history of the Sons of Light. That book is now 90% completed.

From the Editor

The Dowsing Forum was very successful. Many people participated. The discussion was guided by Maggie Lowe, our senior dowsing tutor and Jane Ruehmkorff our President. Patricia Rose gave a great introduction to her dowsing method to take care of negative energies in a house and how to protect yourself while doing it.

Lots of people asked questions, which were promptly answered. It was great to see how we can benefit from sharing each other's experiences. Dowsers have such a wide variety of skills. You can see that dowsing is a very useful tool, even in the small things of everyday life, like finding your sunglasses (they were on my head). My dowsing said I had them, but I could not find them until I probed how high on myself they were. "On top" was the answer!

Nothing is too small, finding your car keys, (they fell in a crack in the sofa), to assessing if that old pasta in the fridge is still ok (it was, thank God, I was starving!).

When it comes to big things, I tend to use dowsing charts. I have many, including one for fixing cars. It lists all possible areas, and then goes into sub-areas. Quite useful when your mechanic says you need a new gearbox, when a simple $35.00 actuator was the only problem.

Some time ago I found that my computer network was getting sluggish and then eventually I could no longer log onto my network drive. I could live with a bit of sluggishness, but not without the entire drive where all my files are located.

So I drew a rough network dowsing chart, starting at the modem, then the router, then the cables, then the network drive itself.

I dowsed that the router was the culprit. Was it faulty "No". Did it need re-start "Yes"... Problem solved! Now I could have dowsed earlier on, when the network traffic was so slow... Lesson learned!

Until next time,

François

Introduction to Joey Korn's Remote Spiritual House clearing Sessions

By Joey Korn

Ed note: Joey Korn is a remarkable dowser. I have done some training with him during one of the ASD conventions in Vermont, USA, so I can say this with great confidence. The text below is just an introduction to clearing sessions that you can book with Joey. I understand that he will be able to work with you remotely. You can check his website at <https://dowers.com> if you wish to contact him regarding booking a session. I would encourage you to do that if you have geopathic problems in your environment.

This article will be followed by a new blessing that Joey released as a gift to the world. I have used it myself, and can confirm that it works great.

How I Work with Subtle Energies

Very little of what I do is intuitive, though my assessment may sound like a psychic reading. I use dowsing to explore the world of subtle energies that are everywhere within and around us. Just about anyone can learn to detect these energies with dowsing, yet the most sensitive scientific instruments, meters, and gauges cannot detect these energies.

However, it takes much experience to really understand the energies and how to work with them. I use L-rods to find these energies, which are basically L-shaped pieces of wire. I use the Blessing Process to remove some energies and bring other energies into balance.

With my dowsing, I have found a crisscrossing pattern or matrix of energies around every human being that I call the Human Energy Pattern. This energy pattern is connected to each of us, and it goes with us everywhere we go. I base my work on Human Energy Patterns. We always imprint our Human Energy Patterns around beds, so what I call the “Bed Pattern” is an imprint of a Human Energy Pattern. At the core of this pattern is what I consider to be the human soul level of the Tree of Life in Kabbalah.

We want our energy patterns to be clear, balanced, and beneficial, but most of us have some imbalances in our patterns. We’ll remove all energies interfering with that balance, and then we’ll improve all the energies to make them ideal to support you and your family. You’ll also learn how you can keep them clear and balanced pretty much 24 hours a day with a special blessing process. It’s very easy to do this.

Geopathic Stress or Energetic Mirrors?

I’d like to explain my understanding of what many call “geopathic stress,” as compared to how most others think about it, if they’ve even heard of it. Dowsers and many others around the world believe there are energies in the Earth that can cause problems in our lives.

They think that your home (or anyone’s home) might happen to have been built in these detrimental Earth energies, and, more significantly, that your bed, your desk, or your favourite chair may have been placed in these energies.

They believe that these energies weaken us, weaken our immune systems and, over time, can cause illness and other problems in our lives, hence the term ‘geopathic stress.’ ‘Geo’ means ‘of the Earth’ and ‘pathic’ relates to illness. It is also believed that they can cause mental, emotional, relationship, and financial problems, just to name a few.

The True Role of the Earth Energies in Our Homes

In my opinion, that way of thinking is contrary to most spiritual teachings that say that Nature and the Universe supports us in life. I’ve come to understand that the Earth energies are here to support us, not harm us. They are our energetic mirrors, constantly reflecting us back to us. We make the Earth energies detrimental with our negative thoughts, actions, and emotions, with our inappropriate reactions to our struggles and strains of life, not the other way around.

The Earth Energies in our homes can either be balanced and beneficial, or unbalanced and detrimental, as to their effect on us. This can be detected and experienced quite easily with dowsing and muscle testing. For the most part, by far, I’ve come to understand that these energies are caused to be detrimental or beneficial by us—by people. I base everything on the Human Energy Pattern.

How Do the Earth Energies Become Detrimental?

Imbalances in our lives manifest as imbalances in our energy patterns. These imbalances can be found with dowsing, and they affect us, as well as others, as though they were detrimental energies. Let’s assume that you start your life with a completely balanced energy pattern, which I consider to be the natural order of things. As you have negative or inappropriate reactions to your issues in life, you cloud portions of your pattern that are related to that issue. As one issue builds on top of other issues, your pattern continues to cloud more and more until parts of it become what I call ‘out of balance’, or detrimental.

The more fear, anxiety, anger, jealousy, etc. that you have in your life, the more out of balance you make your energy pattern.

The imbalances in your own Human Energy Pattern will reflect out as detrimental Earth energies in any room you are physically in or any room you are imprinted in.

You can imprint your pattern in time and space anywhere you happen to be, and you always imprint your pattern when you lie down on a physical structure like a bed. At this level, I call it the 'Bed Pattern'. This imprint is a part of you and you are connected to it, no matter how far you are away from this pattern. If you do something to change your Human Energy Pattern, such as with the Simple Blessing Process, which we will use together, it will temporarily change your Bed Pattern, and vice versa.

If your imbalances are strong enough, they will extend out, making the same pattern over your entire home, as the 'House Pattern'. This pattern is in what I call "higher order Earth energy lines related to your home and property." If any portion of your House Pattern is detrimental, your entire House Pattern will be detrimental. This can be caused by imprints of a family member's energy pattern elsewhere, where others are imprinted with energy problems, including hotel rooms, vacation rentals, therapists' offices, etc.

You'll leave an imprint of your energy anywhere you lie down on a physical structure that's raised off the floor, even if you only lie down for one second. If someone in your family has attracted Interference Energy, it will cause all the natural energy grids in your home to be detrimental. This is the case in almost every session I do.

Again, most people who do space clearing work would say these energies create "geopathic stress zones" and that these energies actually cause the problems in our lives. I have come to understand that it's the other way around; our negative or inappropriate reactions to our stresses and strains of life cause the Earth energies around us to be detrimental. They're reflecting us back to us. Doesn't that make more sense?

Dowsers have found that blocking, diverting, neutralizing, or avoiding these energies helps the people living in that home. This is true, but what they're doing is indirectly affecting the energies of the people. It's like treating the symptoms rather than the source of the pain. For the most part, if you just remove the causes of imbalances in the Human Energy Patterns of the people living in and/or imprinted in that home with appropriate blessing work, all or most of the Earth energies in the home will come into balance and become beneficial.

Some energies have to be removed in order to keep the energies of the home beneficial. I determine which energies need to be improved and which need to be removed when I do the dowsing.

The Best Part: You'll Actually Learn How to Clear All the Energies Yourself!

Before we have our session, we'll send an email with a few documents that will help you learn to clear the energies yourself. During our session, I'll explain what we'll be doing and why it works, using descriptions and images on the documents. Then you'll go through a blessing process that will clear all the energies yourself! This will work with almost all the energy problems affecting you and your family. The only exception would be Earthbound Spirits. In that case, we'll go through that process together, after you clear the other energies. Then I'll do a final clearing over all the energies to make things even better for you and your family.

After we complete our session, I will give you access to a series of blessing files that will help you understand how to keep the energies in your own pattern(s) and in your home or office balanced and beneficial. Thank you for your interest in working with me.

Joey Korn's Miracle Blessing Process

For Personal Energy Clearing & Space Clearing

©Joey Korn 2021-2022 Joey@dowers.com

Jill@dowers.com 1-706-733-0204

Print the double page overleaf if you can, or keep it in your laptop, iPad, or phone for use now and for future reference. It will be your most important blessing process that I share.

If you use this blessing exactly as described, it can accomplish much more in personal energy clearing and space clearing than you can imagine. You'll be helping yourself and likely many others.

You can use my Miracle Blessing Process in your own home or wherever you are going to sleep in other beds, such as in a hotel room, a vacation rental, a hospital room, or in any other home than your own. For new beds, or even a used bed that has been moved from another place, lie down on the bed first, even if only for one second, then get up.

That will imprint your energy pattern. If there are energy problems in your home, or wherever you are, it will clear them all, with very few exceptions. You only need to do the Miracle Blessing at one bed on each floor of your home, if people sleep on different levels of your home.

The file can also be downloaded from the internet here:

<https://dowers.com/wp-content/uploads/2022/04/Joey's-Miracle-Blessing-Process.pdf>

1. Stand at the foot of the bed.
2. Hold the printed page, or a device to read from, in one hand if you choose, and use your free hand as instructed below. You don't have to put both hands over the bed.
3. Bend your elbow so that your lower arm is parallel to the floor.
4. Place your hand over the foot of the bed, just inside the edge of the bed, with your wrist directly over the edge of the bed, palm down, as depicted in the image. This is very important to do correctly.
5. Know that your hand is in that energy field crossing the foot of your bed in the Bed Pattern, which is an imprint of your and/or someone else's Human Energy Pattern.

That energy field is a wall of energy, a few inches thick, passing through the bed and it extends a couple feet above the bed. Putting your palm in that wall of energy connects you to the energy field. If more than one person is imprinted there, the patterns will merge together into one Bed Pattern.

6. Then say the blessing overleaf:

Dear God (or however you address the Divine),
Please follow this energy field, in this energy pattern.

Back to the source or cause of its imbalance,
And do whatever is appropriate with that energy,
that is causing this imbalance in this energy pattern,
To bring healing and balance to my (or our) complete being(s), as well as to all who are affected by that energy,
Physically..., Emotionally..., Mentally..., and Spiritually....

Please break any connections to people who are no longer appropriately connected here or to any place that energy problems were just removed.

Please also bless all the Earth Energies,
all the human-related energies,
and all the electrical fields radiating from electrical devices
throughout my home

(or “from wherever I am now,” if you are not home)

To bring healing and balance to my complete being

And to all who are connected here now.

Thank You.

Amen. (or however you wish to close your blessings)

A Note From Raymon

Howdy Folks!

My clients give me a lot to think about, because they tell me about their problems and it seems they have more than their fair share. WHY?

This simple newsletter won't answer all the questions but maybe it will help.

First, they made bad choices. Most people spend money they don't have - to buy things they don't need - at prices they can't afford- to impress someone - who doesn't give a damn.

I was told that when the government gave money to people during the covid scare, the sales of expensive TVs and entertainment toys broke records.

Seems logical people would have bought food, clothes and necessities to provide for their family.

Suggestion # 1 Use LOGIC and buy what you need instead of something fancy to impress people.

Suggestion # 2 Pay attention to what you put in your body. As they say, “you are what you eat.” Alcohol is more expensive than water and you will probably never be arrested for drinking too much water. Taking care of your body is less expensive than trying to fix it. Same is true of your car.

I received a call from the ‘Governor's Council on Aging’ or some such title. The caller wanted to ask me some questions since I have lived long enough to be a concern to the government.

First question: When did you last have a physical checkup?

Answer: When I was discharged from active duty in the Army in 1966.

Next question: What medications are you taking?

Answer: My memory is bit foggy but seems I took an aspirin about 40 years ago.

Next question: How do you compare yourself with your age and peer group?

Answer: Considering many of them died, and others are on oxygen and lots of medication. — I am still driving a tractor, growing big gardens, climbing mountains, building barb wire fences, catching bee swarms and running chains saws, — Seems I'm doing ok.

Next question: Are you fearful in your house?

Answer: As I look around, I see nothing to be afraid of. There were two times when a 3 ft. blacksnake crawled across the floor but I just picked him up and threw him out the door. Nothing more than that.

The interview was cut short, I and never heard from them again.

Suggestion # 3 Don't let anyone intimidate you into giving them the answers they want.

I had some more ideas but like to keep letters blunt and to the point so maybe will continue this later.

IMPORTANT, SO READ THIS

I really APPRECIATE many of you folks supporting the Energy Clearing Project which I do EVERY morning and most evenings. I wanted to send each of you a personal email to THANK YOU -but ran out of time. Your nice comments are APPRECIATED. ENJOY LIFE

Deepening Your Intuition with Dowsing

By Teresa Brown-Konell

Reprinted from the American Dowser, Spring 2022

The most important factor in dowsing, or mediumship, is a quiet mind. We must be able to be non-attached from 'brain chatter' and outcomes, to access the intuitive realm, which is said to be the place where angels and spirit guides communicate with us, through words, images or feelings.

As someone who grew up with visions of spirits and innate understanding of many things out of this world, dowsing took me to another level. Each of us is connected by an infinite intelligence which I know to be light.

Within that energy, there may be disconnects or embedded energies that change our ability to be healthy. Through asking specific questions with dowsing, we're able to recognize what kind of energy we're dealing with.

Are these energies emotional? Are they anger, fear, greed, shame, guilt or trauma? Have these emotions affected the person's health, mentally or physical well-being? Are these entities spiritual? Our spirit attachments and the very act of dowsing these questions helps us connect on a deeper level to our feelings, to our clairvoyance, our clair-audience, and our awareness of ourselves and others. Without knowing ahead of time, our abilities are enhanced and awareness increases.

So, we must first of all learn to quiet the mind through meditation, walks in nature or prayerful attitude. Then, we must be aware of the intent of our dowsing and trust ourselves through practice and experience. We're here together at an incredible time of change and it is imperative that we all step into our power and accept our gifts.

How Imagination Affects Health

By Linda Hall

Reprinted from the Ozark Research Institute, Winter 2021

In this insightful exploration of how imagination affects health, Linda Hall explains how your thinking can either damage or improve your physical health.

Where you go in your head, you go in your body. Your body doesn't know the difference between imagining something and it actually happening.

It produces the same physiological responses, i.e. stress or relaxation in the nervous system, and the release of hormones and chemicals which you experience as feelings and emotions. What happens in your head affects your nervous and endocrine systems, digestion, heart rate, breathing, sleep and even your immune function.

It's likely you enjoy the relaxing benefits of drifting into a nice daydream every now and then, but are you aware of just how often you use your imagination in a negative way, and the daily impact this has on your health and well-being? Used negatively, your imagination can limit your potential for a full, healthy and happy life. As humans, we are all creatures of habit and tend to normalize negative thinking patterns, along with the disaster movies we create in our heads when we are anxious about something.

The trouble is, what we habitually think and envisage is what we come to expect. Every experience we have is 'hardwired' into our body through a network of neural pathways and cellular memory; in a very real way we train our systems where to go. We get good at 'doing stress' in this way and just like anything else it becomes a habit. Yet we all have something wonderful called neuroplasticity, which is the ability to produce an almost infinite amount of neural pathways. This means that we can develop new useful habits to replace the old, less helpful ones.

Positive use of the imagination to envisage desired states of health and well-being has long been practiced in complementary healthcare, and is now recognized by orthodox medicine as a powerful self-help tool for a wide range of conditions: from healing cancer, to developing self-esteem and inner confidence. Olympic sportsmen and women have used it for decades in their training.

Meditation also has a rich tradition of using positive imaging through guided visualisation or ‘creative visualisation’ as it is sometimes known. It’s like being told a pleasant story which opens the door to positive experiences that your body will remember. The beauty of it is that the whole of you gets involved in a gentle learning process: body, mind and spirit.

So, the next time you say that something is ‘all in the mind’, think again, it’s likely to be in your body as well!

Being Present for This Moment

By Mary O'Malley

Reprinted from <https://www.shiftfrequency.com>

I invite you to take a moment right now and let it all go – the past, the future – all the stories in your head – and simply be present for this moment. See it, feel it, hear it, breathe it. This moment is all that matters because the last moment is gone and the next one isn't here yet. Take a minute and see if you can be fully here, right now, in this moment.

This moment is your home, the only place where you can have direct contact with life. Most of us, most of the time, are far away from home. But this isn't cause for despair. In this schoolroom of the heart that is your life, it seems that you need to take this journey into the stories in your head, into trying to do life rather than be life, before you can come back home.

Many of us are now on the journey home, awakening into the phenomenal power of being. Moments here and there of simply recognizing what is showing up in and around you – using your mind to connect with reality rather than always trying to create a reality – are powerful beyond your wildest imagination.

If this calls to you, set aside time every day but don't get caught in the idea of having to sit quietly for many minutes. Consistency is far more important than quantity. So even five minutes a day can transform your life and if five minutes is too much, go for two minutes but give yourself that gift every day.

For decades, I have set aside time every day to simply open to life. I do it by sitting, closing my eyes and bringing my attention to whatever is arising in that moment, inviting my mind to be curious and attentive. Connecting with my life in this way opens me back into the safety and the clarity of being present for life.

The most important step is the willingness. Your mind may resist for a while, but don't let that discourage your willingness to be present in this way. Your intention is very powerful, and in the right time it will bring you the gift of pure connection with yourself and with your life.

Once I tasted the joy and clarity of opening to life right here, right now, I also made a commitment to lift myself out of the busyness of life once a year by going to a place where I could be quiet and simply connect with myself again. Every time I do this, I come back with a quieter mind, a more open heart and a greater trust of myself and of Life.

When I do this, I take along in my heart the skills I have learned throughout my journey of awakening, including: 1) Curiosity – the ability to be fascinated by what is going on right now rather than being completely lost in it or running away from it; 2) Compassion – the ability to bring the spaciousness of my heart to whatever is happening, both inside of myself and outside; 3) Living in Questions – using the kind of questions where I don't look for the answer to make pure contact with life and to ask for help from the intelligence and wisdom that is always with us.

So, I invite you to cultivate an intention to regularly bring your attention out of the constantly becoming mind and into this moment – right here, right now. And every time you do that, even if it is only for a split second, you bring more and more consciousness into your life and your world. A moment may not seem like a lot, but the oceans are made of drops of water.

May we be healed and may we become a part of the healing of our planet.

*Stay tuned for the launch date of Mary's new book, Falling in Love with You.*

Your Special Gift

By Madisyn Taylor

Reprinted from the Ozark Research Institute, Winter 2021

Each of us is born with a specific genius, that was bestowed upon us so we can do our part to make this world a better place. All of us have a role that we're uniquely suited for.

Imagine our planet without trees, oceans, or clouds.

In this same way, when one of us doesn't develop or use our special gift, a cosmic void takes place.

This unique talent or ability may be hidden from your own sight like a golden treasure buried under shifting sands. Often, we spend so much time dazzled by the talents of others that we can overlook our own gifts. It may even be that our unique ability is something we view negatively. Perhaps we find it difficult concentrating on any one subject for long; meanwhile, others are thrilled by our ability to weave various ideas throughout our conversations.

Or, you might think of yourself as 'frivolous', when it's likely your charming approach to life casts a light of inspiration that others can't help but follow. It's important for all of us to try to find our special gift and discover how we can best express it.

- Ask others to name what they think is your most overlooked talent or character trait. Their answers may change your life.
- Explore these riches that are yours to express, and you may find yourself helping others discover and develop their own blessings.

- Acknowledge and appreciate the gifts you see in those around you.
- Tell your neighbour that loves to garden, how much her green thumb enlivens the whole block.
- Thank your co-worker for always greeting your days together with a smile.
- Tell your close friends that their ability to listen makes your world a better place.

Our unique gifts are like golden rays of expression that can encircle the world with light.

Blue Mountains Dowzers News

The next meeting of the Blue Mountains Dowzers is scheduled for Sunday 7 August, 2022, 2:00 pm at the Lawson Mid Mountains Neighbourhood Centre, 9 New Street, Lawson.

Speaker: Megan Heazlewood

- The Enigma of the Sun -

Megan Heazlewood will be presenting information which is available and verifiable on the recent astonishing behaviours and imaging of our Sun - not only the Sun in our system, but of the Sun in the centre of the Milky Way Galaxy.

The Sun's behaviour has scientists stunned over the unpredictable and unprecedented anomalies, and declaring that our whole understanding of space physics needs to be revised. There are many satellites imaging the Sun in various spectrums, providing indelible evidence for things which our current understanding say should not exist.

Megan's presentation includes:

- What some scientists and researchers predict about the evidence and the possible consequences for Earth
- What is already evidenced on Earth based on their predictions
- The ancient indigenous cultures of the world's understanding
- Could this enhance our present understanding for the times we are in? The Mayans called their calendar 'The Sunstone Calendar', which demonstrates a much more sophisticated cosmology than we can easily comprehend. Megan believes it is Hollywood which designated the term 'Doomsday Calendar'.

Megan will discuss the tremendous change we are rapidly undergoing in every sphere of influence, and on every scale, all according to the harmonic synchronisation of the Mayan Calendar, and the understanding of many ancient traditions.

Book review:

Many lives, many masters:

By Brian Weiss

The True Story of a Prominent Psychiatrist, His Young Patient, and the Past-Life Therapy That Changed Both Their Lives.

This is a bit of a classic. As a traditional psychotherapist, Dr. Brian Weiss was astonished and sceptical when one of his patients began recalling past-life traumas, that seemed to hold the key to her recurring nightmares and anxiety attacks.

His scepticism was eroded, however, when she began to channel messages from the ‘space between lives,’ which contained remarkable revelations about Dr. Weiss’ family and his dead son. Using past-life therapy, he was able to cure the patient and embark on a new, more meaningful phase of his own career.

- Access Bars[®], Tools and Techniques -

Dexter's life has never been the same since working with the Tools of Access. He is able to use the tools and techniques everyday in his life and he can't imagine what his life would be like ,if he did not have the Access Tools & Techniques.

The Access Bars[®] are a set of 32 points on the head which, when lightly touched, stimulate positive change in the brain and defragment the electromagnetics of stress, thoughts and emotions.

This gentle, non-invasive technique works on releasing both physical and mental blocks stored within the body. It is currently used in businesses, schools and even prisons around the world to facilitate greater health and wellbeing.

The effects of Access Bars[®] are scientifically verified, are individual to each person, and differs from session to session. Access Bars[®] can help with the following:

- Improved physical health
- Greater mental clarity and reduced stress
- Enhanced motivation and easier communication
- Significant increase in feelings of joy, happiness, gratitude, kindness and peace
- Deeper relaxation, and positive effects on migraines and insomnia
- Enhanced mental health: reduced symptoms of depression, panic attacks, ADD, ADHD & OCD.
